

RECORDER

for beginners, students and adults on Skype and Zoom

The recorder is a very beautiful instrument that is particularly suitable for children.

The sound of the recorder is open and friendly.

In addition to the repertoire that children can play, there are also very important compositions for students and adults.

Studying the recorder could be a very good basis for studying the flute.

FLUTE

for beginners, students and adults on Skype and Zoom

If a person wants to hear a very intimate and warm sound, then the flute is the right choice for them.

The repertoire for the flute is very extensive.

The literature includes pieces for solo flute, chamber music and orchestra.