

IT IS NOT IMPORTANT

Publishing House "KOMOVI" Andrijevica, 2000

IN THE MOMENT

Life is coloured
by the eternal day that passes in the encounter of clouds and sun becoming a confused stone in the endlessness of the moment.

In the moment
many dark centuries happen reminding captivated people to follow the spark of victories that are rarely remembered.

Feel it when it arrives because everything appears and disappears
in the moment.
